Check your library account and extend loans

To check your library account, go to goo.gl/PYOCIS; use your student number (e.g. S00012345 or ABC15415723) to login, then click on your name to access your record.

To renew (extend) your loans, tick the title you would like to keep for longer and click Renew.

The image shows a screenshot of a library account page. At the top, there are tabs for 'Loans', 'Reserved', 'History', 'Charges', and 'Recent'. A blue arrow points to the 'Loans' tab. Below the tabs is a 'Renew' button. To the right of the button is a text box that says 'In order to renew an item select the tickbox to highlight the appropriate item then click the Renew button'. A blue arrow points from this text box to a table below. The table has columns for 'Author', 'Title', 'Medium', 'Due date', and 'Rn.'. The first row shows 'Rushkoff, Douglass' as the author and 'Program or be programed: ten commands for a digital age' as the title. The 'Rn.' column has a value of '2' and a checked checkbox.
